Chapter One

"Sparrowpool hurry Mistyflight's giving birth." Yowled Starrynight. Sparrowpool quickly grabbed a thick stick and bolted into the nursery, once there she told Mistyflight to bite onto the stick when in pain.

1 Hour Later.....

"Mistyflight you are now the mother of two she cats, what are you going to name them so I can announce it to the clan?" asked Sparrowpool.

"The grey and white spotted she cat will be called Jaykit and the sandy coloured one will be called Sandkit after their father."answered Mistyflight.

Sparrowpool then walked out of the den and leaped onto the fallen tree and yelled "All cats able to catch their own prey, gather beneath the Fallen Tree for a quick announcement!"

"Mistyflight has given birth and had to beautiful kits named, Jaykit and Sandkit and hopefully Sandfur will be watching over them from Starclan!" announced Sparrowpool. "Jaykit, Sandkit, Jaykit, Sandkit!" yelled the whole clan.

6 Moons Later...

"Jaykit, Sandkit step forward, Sandkit until you earn your warrior name you will be called Sandpaw, Kinkwhisper you were taught well by Dawnspirit, I now hope you can teach Sandpaw what your mentor taught you." announced Flowerstar. Sandpaw walked up to her mentor Kinkwhisper and touched noses with her then sat next to her.

Then Flowerstar continued"Jaykit until you earn your warrior name you will be called Jaypaw and I will be your mentor." Jaypaw then touched noses with Flowerstar and sat at the base of the Fallen Tree. "Jaypaw, Sandpaw, Jaypaw, Sandpaw!" yelled the clan.

Sassypaw and Boragepaw trotted over to the apprentices and said"come with us we will get you settled in the Apprentice's Den." So Sassypaw and Boragepaw lead Sandpaw and Jaypaw to the Apprentice's Den where there was already nest made for them. The apprentices curled up in their nests and fell asleep.

Jaypaw woke up in a forest that she didn't recognize and when she turned around she spotted a Sandy coloured tom standing there. "Who are you, you look just like my sister Sandpaw?"asked Jaypaw. The tom replied saying "I am you father Sandfur and I am here to tell you are prophecy Jaypaw."

"The Jay of Light must find the Blue Frost and the Fur of Ice and form the clan 'Jayclan', the Jay must become the leader and find a place for her clan to live and find others to join her clan, you must use you powers to help you and your clan find your new territory."announced Sandfur.

Jaypaw then woke up and walked over to the Fresh Kill Pile and grabbed a Squirrel then walked back over to her den and laid outside and began eating the squirrel. When Flowerstar came out of her den, Jaypaw trotted over to her and asked "What are we doing today Flowerstar?" "I am going to show you our boundaries and then maybe teach you some hunting techniques, come on let's go now." Flowerstar replied.

So Flowerstar took Jaypaw out and showed her their territory and the boundaries they share with Gorseclan. Then she took Jaypaw to the training hollow where she started teaching Jaypaw the Hunter's crouch.

"Jaypaw, first you have to put you body just above the ground and don't let your tail touch the ground or hit anything, then you slowly walk over to the Prey making sure you don't step on a stick, then you pounce on your prey and nip it on the back of the neck, now you try it." said Flowerstar. Jaypaw then put her body as close to ground without touching it, then once she spotted a mouse she quietly walked towards it without touching any sticks. Once she was close enough, Jaypaw pounced and gave the Killing Bite to the Mouse and picked the mouse up and carried it back to Flowerstar.

"Well done Jaypaw, let's take that back to camp then you can come back out and do some more hunting." said Flowerstar smiling.

So once Jaypaw had put her mouse on the Fresh Kill Pile she went out and hunted for the rest of the day and when she came back to camp she was carrying 3 mice, a squirrel, a vole and a small bird. The whole clan was shocked at how much prey she had caught.

Once she had deposited her Prey to the Fresh Kill Pile, she walked into the medicine den and walked up to Sparrowpool. "Sparrowpool last night I had a dream and my father Sandfur visited me and told me a prophecy...

The Jay of Light must find the Blue Frost and the Fur of Ice and form the clan 'Jayclan', then the Jay must become the leader and find a place for her clan to live and find others to join her clan, you must use your powers to help you and your clan find their new territory."

"I'd say the you are the Jay of Light and maybe the Blue Frost and the Fur of Ice could be in Gorseclan, we will find out in the gathering tomorrow night ok, don't tell anyone else about this." After promising she wouldn't tell anyone else, Jaypaw left the Medicine Den and trotted sleepily to her nest and fell asleep.

Chapter Two

"The cats going to the gathering are; Dovespirit, Sassypaw, Sparrowpool, Boragepaw, Jaypaw, Featherfall, Sandpaw, Mistyflight and Kinkwhisper, grab something to eat quickly then meet at the barrier."yelled Flowerstar.

The cat that were going to the gathering grabbed something from the fresh kill pile and quickly are it before heading over to the barrier where Flowerstar was waiting. Once everyone was there they all walked to the gathering.

AT THE GATHERING!

"We have two new apprentices, Sandpaw and Jaypaw and our clan is going alright."said Flowerstar. "Gorseclan also has two new apprentices, Bluepaw and Icepaw also our clan's prey is running okay."announced Stonestar "Sandpaw, Jaypaw, Bluepaw, Icepaw!" yelled both clans. "that is all, now return back to your camp now." said Stonestar.

Jaypaw walked back to camp with Sparrowpool. "Jaypaw I think Bluepaw and Icepaw are the other cats in the prophecy, you should talk to them next time you see them and when you all have your warrior/medicine cat name it will most likely be a good time for you to leave." said Sparrowpool. Jaypaw replied "You are correct Sparrowpool and hopefully I will run into then soon so I can get to know them better."

Once back at camp Jaypaw, Sandpaw, Boragepaw and Sassypaw went to their den and curled up in their nests and fell asleep.

"All cats that can catch their own prey gather beneath the Fallen Tree for a clan meeting."yelled Flowerstar. Everyone walked out of their dens and gathered around the Fallen Tree awaiting Flowerstar's announcement.

"Dovespirit, Featherfall is Sassypaw and Boragepaw ready to become warriors?"asked Flowerstar. "Yes they are"replied the two warriors. "Sassypaw, Boragepaw do you promise to follow the warrior code and defend your clan with your life?"Flowerstar asked the apprentices. "I do" they replied together.

"Then by the power of Starclan I give you your warrior name, Boragepaw from this moment on you will be called Borageheart, We welcome you as a new warrior, Sassypaw from this moment on you will be called Sassylife, we welcome you as a new warrior, tonight you must sit vigil and guard the camp." Borageheart, Sassylife, Borageheart, Sassylife!" yelled the clan.

Flowerstar dismissed the clan and started walking over to her apprentice "tomorrow Jaypaw, you and Sandpaw will have your assessment, you two have my permission to go to the training hollow to practice battle training, good luck"

Jaypaw then ran over to her sister and told her the news then they walked to the training hollow together and started practicing battle moves.

They first practiced the Tree Jump which is a move, that when a cat is running towards you and just before they attack you, you climb a tree and then jump off and land on your opponents back making them fall flat to the ground injuring at least one or two bones but the apprentices practiced land on the ground without falling over or hurting themselves.

Then they practiced some hunting techniques and when they got back to camp they had two mice, a sparrow, two voles and a squirrel and they deposited the prey to the fresh kill pile then headed to there dens to sleep so that they will be ready for their assessment the next day.

THE NEXT DAY!!

I woke up that morning ready for my assessment and I was a little nervous but I ignored it and went over to the fresh kill pile and grabbed a large squirrel and started eating it.

Flowerstar walked out of her den and started walking over to me,

"ok Jaypaw we will start with Single hunting, then Battle training, then Hunting in pairs and for hunting, you begin now!"she said.

I bolted into the forest, then slowed down to a walk and sniffed the air, suddenly I scented a mouse. I went down into the hunter crouch and walked towards the mouse then I pounced on it and gave it the killing bite. I then buried and I scented 2 squirrels, so I climbed up the tree and jumped from one branch to another until I was right above the 2 squirrels then I pounced gave the first squirrel the killing bite and chased the other and pounced on it and killed it.

I grabbed both of my squirrels and buried them. Then I scented a robin so I went into the hunter crouch and followed the scent until I could see the robin trying to grab a worm and just before it flew away I pounced on it and killed. "Good catch Jaypaw now go and collect your other prey and put them on the fresh kill pile and head straight to the training hollow." said Flowerstar.

I went back to our camp and put the prey on the fresh kill pile and started heading over to the training hollow. When I got there, I saw Flowerstar and Dovespirit waiting for me.

"Ok Jaypaw, Dovespirit and I are going to attack you together and you must defend yourself as well as attack."said Flowerstar. I nodded my head telling her I had heard and got ready to begin.

Flowerstar then went to my left while Dovespirit went to my right. Dovespirit and Flowerstar started attacking.. first I blocked Dovespirit's attacks while I started attacking Flowerstar and once Flowerstar was defeated I put all my focus into defeating Dovespirit.

Dovespirit tried jumping onto my back but I rolled out of the road and she fell, I instantly ran up to her and started attacking her claws sheathed until Flowerstar told me to stop.

"Well done Jaypaw we don't need to do the team hunting so let's head back to camp and begin your warrior ceremony."said Flowerstar.

Chapter Three

"All cats able to catch their own prey gather beneath the Fallen Tree for a clan meeting..... we have two apprentices who are ready to become warriors, Kinkwhisper is Sandpaw ready to become a warrior?" asked Flowerstar. "yes she is" replied the warrior.

Flowerstar asked"Sandpaw, Jaypaw do you promise to uphold the warrior code and protect your clan with your life?" "Yes" they replied. "Sandpaw step forward, by the power of Starclan I give you your warrior name, Sandpaw from this moment on you will be called Sandwave.. Jaypaw step forward, by the power of Starclan I give you your warrior name, Jaypaw from this moment on you will be called Jaylight."said Flowerstar.

Sandwave, Jaylight, Sandwave, Jaylight! yelled the clan.

"We also have five kits that have reached 6 moons old and are ready to become apprentices.... Treekit step forward, until you earn your warrior name you will be called Treepaw and your mentor will be Borageheart"

"Duskkit step forward, until you earn your warrior name you will be called Duskpaw and your mentor will be Sassylife"

"Yellowkit step forward, until you earn your warrior name you will be called Yellowpaw and your mentor will be Sandwave"

"Lakekit step forward, until you earn your warrior name you will be called Lakepaw and your mentor will Jaylight and Locuskit is it your wish to train to be a medicine cat?" "Yes it is" replied the tom. "Then from now on you will be called Locuspaw and Sparrowpool will be your mentor."

"Treepaw, Duskpaw, Yellowpaw, Lakepaw, Locuspaw!" yelled the clan.

"Tonight is the gathering and these cats are coming; Treepaw, Duskpaw, Yellowpaw, Lakepaw, Locuspaw, Sassylife, Borageheart, Sparrowpool, Sandwave, Jaylight and Dovespirit."

AT THE GATHERING

"Gorseclan has two warrior Lionspare and Bluefrost, new medicine cat Icefur and five new apprentices Dowpaw, Mythpaw, Vinepaw, Fuzzypaw and Aspenpaw and Rockymountain has given birth to two kits Mintkit and Pepperkit."

"Bluefrost, Icefur, Dowpaw, Mythpaw, Vinepaw, Fuzzypaw, Aspenpaw, Mintkit, Pepperkit!" yelled the clans.

"Doveclan has four new warriors Sassylife, Borageheart, Sandwave and Jaylight, five apprentices Treepaw, Duskpaw, Yellowpaw, Lakepaw and Locuspaw, also our queen Starrynight gave birth to three kits Robinkit, Mousekit and Hollykit."

"Sassylife, Borageheart, Sandwave, Jaylight, Treepaw, Duskpaw, Yellowpaw, Lakepaw, Locuspaw, Robinkit, Mousekit, Hollykit!" yelled the clans.

Jaylight decided to go and talk to Bluefrost and Icefur. When she found them she asked "Bluefrost, Icefur have you had any dreams from Starclan lately?" "Actually yes I have and I believe your the Jay of Light, Bluefrost is the Blue Frost and that I am the Fur of Ice." replied Icefur. "I also believe that Icefur but do you know what your powers are?"Jaylight asked.

"I have the power to read other cats minds and sense what they are feeling" replied Bluefrost. "And I can heal others if there injuries were meant to kill but were made by another cat"said Icefur. "I have the power to hear and see further then other cats and I can also run longer and faster than anyone."I told them.

"When should we leave and should we ask anyone to join us?" asked Bluefrost. "We leave in 2 days and only ask your mate and your apprentice but don't force them to come along, then in 2 days time we should meet here and figure out where we will go." I said.

"Ok see you Jaylight in 2 days time and we must inform our leaders and Medicine cats to."said Icefur. The three cats then trotted say to join there clans and headed back to their camp.

THE NEXT MORNING

"Sparrowpool I need to talk to you, Flowerstar, Borageheart, Lakepaw and Treepaw it's very important, I will fetch the others and we will meet at the training hollow."Jaylight said.

I bolted into the warriors den and nuzzled Borageheart awake. "Borageheart can you go get Flowerstar and meet me at the training hollow it's very important." she said. Jaylight then left before waiting for a reply and went to the apprentices den. "Lakepaw, Treepaw wake up, we are going to the training hollow ok."i said.

Once the apprentices were up we walked out of camp and headed over to the training hollow where Flowerstar, Sparrowpool and Borageheart were already waiting.

"Ok when I was an apprentice I received a prophecy from my father and the prophecy said The Jay of light must find the Blue Frost and the Fur of Ice and form the clan Jayclan and I found that I was was the Jay of Light, the Blue Frost and the Fur of Ice is Bluefrost and Icefur and we decided that we would ask one cat and our apprentices to come and that is why Borageheart, Treepaw and Lakepaw are here and we are meeting up at the gathering place tomorrow to decide where we are heading." I told them.

"Borageheart, Treepaw and Lakepaw do you want to join Jayclan with Jaylight?"asked Flowerstar. "yes we do"they all replied. "Then you have my permission to go and you can come and visit any time you want." said Flowerstar. "thank you Flowerstar" I replied.

"I will prepare traveling herbs for your journey." said Sparrowpool. With that the group of cats returned to camp and Flowerstar jumped onto the Fallen Tree.

"All cats old enough to catch their own prey gather beneath the Fallen Tree for a clan meeting." yelled Flowerstar.

"Tomorrow Jaylight, Borageheart, Treepaw and Lakepaw will be leaving us to form a new clan called Jayclan as Starclan has destined them to, they will be joined by Bluefrost, Icefur and three other cats and I have given then permission to come and visit us whenever they want."said Flowerstar.

"Jaylight, Borageheart, Treepaw, Lakepaw." yelled the clan. Jaylight's mother Mistyflight approached her and gave her a lick and said "I will miss you so make sure you visit and introduce me to your kin alright."Mistyflight said. "ok mum I will do that I promise"i replied.

"Borageheart will you be my mate I have loved you since a kit"i asked shyly. "I will be your mate, I have also loved you since a kit."he replied. The group then went to their nests and fell asleep saving their energy for the journey ahead.

Chapter Four

The next morning the traveling cats headed over to the medicine den to collect their traveling herbs, once they had eaten the bitter herbs they walked out of the camp and headed to the Gathering place to meet up with the others.

"Good Morning Jaylight, this is my mate Meadowfur and our three apprentices Mythpaw, Vinepaw and Aspenpaw." said Bluefrost pointing to each cat.

"Good Morning Bluefrost, Icefur, this is my mate Borageheart and our apprentices Treepaw and Lakepaw."i said pointing them out. "Jaylight which way are we going?"asked Lakepaw.

"First we are going to go to the Moon Flower so I can receive my nine lives and then we will decide from then."i replied.

So with Jaylight leading the group they walked along the Gorseclan and Doveclan border until they reached the Moon Flower. Jaylight then asked Bluefrost, Meadowfur and Borageheart to wait there while her and Icefur went to the Moon Flower.

When they arrived at the Moon flower Jaylight and Icefur breathed in its scent and fell asleep. When I opened my eyes I was standing in front of ten cats with stars in their pelts.

"Jaylight with this life I give you courage use this life so you will not be afraid to ask questions and when you are in a battle." said her father Sandfur. The he stepped back and another cat stepped forward this time a she cat.

"My name is Dovestar and I was the first leader of Doveclan so with this life I give you leadership use this to help you lead you clan with no worries." Dovestar said then stepped back. Then a tom stepped forward.

"My name is Heatherfoot and I am your mothers mother and with this life I give you a mothers love use this to care for everyone in your clan as if they are your kits."Heatherfoot said then stepped back.

Then her younger brother who died soon after birth stepped forward "My name is now Starkit and I give you the life or Playfullness use this to play with every cat and kit in your clan and have fun."said her younger brother Starkit.

Next was a tom "My name is Herbwing I was the medicine cat before Sparrowpool and with this life I give you Forgiveness use this to forgive your clan so you don't lose them."said Herbwing.

Next was a she cat "My name is Dovewing and I was from thunderclan a clan that is over ten moons away and with this life I give you Happiness use this so you will always be happy." she said stepping back.

Next was a tom "My name is Gorsestar first leader of Gorseclan and with this life I give you Curiousity use this and be curious but careful when traveling in new surroundings." he said walking back into line.

This time it was a she cat "I am your mother's sister Birdlife and with this life I give you Mentorship use this to train the younger cat everything you learnt."she said going back into line.

Last was a tom "My name is Jayfeather medicine cat of thunderclan and with this life I give you my gift of being able to read other cats minds use this gift to tell when you are being lied to but if you don't use it correctly I will take it away."he said.

Next a tom stepped forward "Congradulations Jaystar, I am Lionheart brother of Jayfeather and your great great great grandfather on your father's side."he said.

"Jaystar, Jaystar, Jaystar!" the ten Starclan cats yelled. Then everything went black and when I opened my eyes I was back at the Moonflower with Icefur waking up beside me. "Congratulations Jaystar, you might want to appoint a deputy before we leave."said Icefur.

"Gather around everyone I have an announcement, I have received my nine lives so I am now Jaystar now I must appoint a deputy, I say these words so Starclan can approve of my choice Meadowfur will be the deputy, I also appoint Icefur as Jayclan's official medicine cat."

"Jaystar, Meadowfur, Icefur!" yelled the clan. "We will start heading to the twoleg place then we will travel through it and climb the mountain on the otherside from their we will make a decision where to go then, now let's go." I said.

The group travelled until they reached the twoleg place where they ran into a ginger and white splotched she cat. "Hello, my name is Bunny, you don't live around these parts do you?"asked the cat named Bunny. "my names Jaystar and this is Meadowfur, Icefur, Bluefrost, Borageheart, Treepaw, Lakepaw, Mythpaw, Vinepaw and Aspenpaw, you are correct we don't live around here but we are on a journey to find a place to start our clan."i replied.

"Wow clan cats, I heard a lot about you guys from my father Firewing who used to live in Gorseclan and ever since he told me about clan life I have wanted to be in a clan, can I join your clan please?"Bunny asked. "Yeah why not I will give you a warriors ceremony but we will still train you."i said. "Thank you thank you sooo much."said a cheery looking Bunny.

"Bunny do you promise to uphold the warrior code and protect your clan with your life?"i asked. "I do"bunny said. "then by the power of Starclan I give you your warrior name, Bunny from this day on you will be called Bunnyleap, we welcome you as a warrior of Jayclan."i announced.

After we had finished we started heading through the twoleg place. Halfway through we ran into another cat but this time it was a black and white tom with green eyes. "Bunny what are you doing hanging out with these strange cats?"he asked.

"It's Bunnyleap now, I have decided to join Jayclan and travel with them to find a new home, Firewing, do you want to come with us?"asked Bunnyleap to her father. "Jayclan, I don't recognize that clan, who is your leader?"asked Firewing.

"My name is Jaystar leader of Jayclan, Jayclan was only created a few days ago as Starclan has wished us to do and now we must leave our clans to find a new place to live."i told the tom.

"If it's alright with you, I would like to join your clan but as a elder as I am too old to fight and I will travel with you to your new home."said Firewing. "Firewing is it you wish to give up the title of warrior and join the elders den?"i asked. "it is"he replied. "then you will be the first elder of Jayclan."i announced.

Afterwards we continued out of the twoleg place and started climbing the mountain, once at the top, we stopped and splitted up to catch some food. When I returned with a squirrel and a mouse I noticed everyone had a piece of prey to eat except for Icefur so I gave her the squirrel to eat and ate my mouse up in a couple of bites.

Once we had finished our food, I sent out my powers to see if there were any good places to settle the clan, at first I found nothing but when I brought my powers in closer I found a forest with a lake and rivers and now twolegs, it was perfect and we could be there tomorrow afternoon if we left early in the morning.

"Everyone gather around I have an announcement, ok everyone I know a perfect spot for us to begin our clan and we will get there tomorrow sometimes but for now we will rest here and take turns guarding the others, Meadowfur will you set that up please, goodnight everyone."Jaystar announced. So the cats gathered together and fell asleep.

EARLY THE NEXT DAY!

"Ok everyone, get up we are almost at our journeys end."announced Jaystar. "When will we arrive there Jaystar?" asked her mate Borageheart. "we should be there this afternoon, we will catch our breakfast on the way there."replied Jaystar. So the group of cats started climbing down the mountain, stumbling a couple of times on loose rocks but alright. Once at the bottom of the mountain, Icefur came up to her and said "Jaystar when we get there, where are we going to sleep?" "When we get there I will send out my powers and see if there is any place that we can have our camp and I am certain there will be."I replied. "Oh Jaystar, you do realize your expecting kits soon don't you?"said a worried Icefur. "No I didn't know, how long till they are born?" I asked. "tomorrow or the next day at the latest, are you going to tell Borageheart?"she asked. "I will tell him when we arrive at our new home."i replied.

The group of cats continued walking until they came across a Thunderpath. "Ok everyone, we are going to cross this in pairs, 1 warrior with 1 apprentice, Firewing and Lakepaw, Meadowfur and Aspenpaw, Icefur and Treepaw, Bluefrost, Bunnyleap and Mythpaw and I will cross with Vinepaw, wait for my signal before you cross."i said. I waited until a monster went by each time before saying go and now it was just myself and Vinepaw left. "ok let's go Vinepaw."i said. We crossed quickly and made it to the other side safely. When we looked ahead, we could see our new home and as if everyone new it we all ran towards it and stopped when we arrived.

Make sure you tell me what you think in the comments please. Tell me what you want Mythpaw, Lakepaw, Treepaw and Aspenpaw's warrior name should be, for Vinepaw I have decided Vineclaw but I have no idea for the others.

Chapter Five

"Borageheart, can I speak to you for a minute please?"i asked my mate. "yeah, what do you want Jaystar?" replied Borageheart. "Well Icefur told me that I am expecting your kits in a couple of days."i told him. "You should not be doing so much walking, you need to rest up."Borageheart said worriedly. "Don't worry, we have arrived at our journeys end, so I can rest up ok" I replied to my worried mate.

"All cats old enough to catch their own prey gather here for a clan meeting." I said then waited for everyone to gather before I continued "I am expecting Borageheart's kits and they are due in a couple of days, does anybody have any other announcements?" Jaystar asked. "I am expecting Meadowfur's kit and they will also be due any day now"announced Bluefrost.

"Bluefrost, Jaystar, Bluefrost, Jaystar."yelled their clanmates.

Jaystar then sent her powers out to try and find a perfect camp for her clan to live in. I eventually found a camp that had a bramble barricade with a river going through the middle of the clearing and dens made out of stone.

"Attention cats of Jayclan I have found our new camp, we will head off now so follow me."i announced. My clan followed me until we arrived at our new camp. "Cats of Jayclan welcome to our new home, Meadowfur your in charge of figuring out dens for everyone, come to me when you have figured it out ok."i asked. "Yes Jaystar, I will start the search now, apprentices and Bunnyleap go look around the camp for some moss and even feathers if you can to make enough nests for everyone."ordered Meadowfur.

Bunnyleap and the apprentices headed out of the barrier and started looking for some moss. Meadowfur then came running up to Jaystar with a look of excitement in his eyes. "Jaystar, the den closest to the barrier will be thee Warriors den, the den next to the river can be the medicine den and the den next to the Medicine den can be the Nursery and the next one can be the Apprentice den, the large den on the other side of the clearing could be that Leaders den and next to it can be the Elder den, what do you think Jaystar?"

"I like that, Meadowfur show everyone to their dens please and show Bunnyleap and the apprentices their den when they get back please."i asked.

A Few Minutes Later

Bunnyleap and the apprentices arrived back at camp with a heap of moss and some feathers but when they got to the clearing, Jaystar noticed that they had surrounded a white and grey tom and a brown tom. I then walked over to them and asked Bunnyleap "Bunnyleap why did you bring these cats to our camp?" "They said they needed help and they asked us for help but I told them I would take them to you instead."Bunnyleap replied.

"Bunnyleap and apprentices go to Meadowfur and he will show you the dens and where to put the moss"I then turned and looked at the two toms"Follow me to my den and when we get inside I want you to tell me your names and why you need help,ok"i said.

The two tons followed me to my den, then the grey and white tom spoke,"My name is Frost and that is Bear, we were asking for help because my mate Feather is having her kits but at night foxes come and attack us, we lost my sister Quin two nights ago and I don't want to lose anyone else, will you please help us?"Frost asked. "We will help, I will gather some cats and you will show us where to go."i replied. Jaystar then walked out of her den to call a clan meeting. "All cats old enough to catch their own prey gather here for a clan meeting."i yelled.

"These cats, Frost and Bear need out help with some foxes and we are going to help them... The cats coming are; Bunnyleap, Lakepaw, Vinepaw, Borageheart and Icefur... Icefur make sure you bring some herbs for healing and some for a pregnant she cat, Meadowfur is in charge while I am gone, ok Frost and Bear lead the way."i announced.

So the patrol of cats followed the two toms out of the barrier, through the forest and onto the moors where they came across a tunnel in a hill. "That is where our mates Honey and Feather are, Honey is a honey coloured she cat and Feather is a grey she cat."announced bear. They then followed the two toms into the small tunnel until it got larger and wider, once there they saw Feather and Honey sharing tongues.

"Feather, Honey, these cats are here to help."Frost announced. Then Icefur raced up to Feather, "My name is Icefur, I am a medicine cat, your kits will be coming soon so you might want to lay on your side in a comfortable position."Icefur said. "Ok I will but what about the foxes surely they will kill us?"Feather asked.

"No they won't because my warriors will protect you, by the way my name is Jaystar and the cats with me are; Bunnyleap, Lakepaw, Vinepaw and my mate Borageheart."i told Feather.

Sorry I may not be posting as much as I did because I have soo much school work but I will try to post at least one chapter per week. Please comment on what you think about my book and don't forget to vote please.

Chapter Six

THAT NIGHT

"Jaystar I scent three foxes nearby, do you want to tell the others."said Bunnyleap. "Good scenting Bunnyleap, I will tell the others now."Jaystar replied.

"Cats of Jayclan gather here for an announcement."Jaystar announced and then continued on speaking. "Bunnyleap has scented three foxes nearby, so be ready to attack in pairs,Bunnyleap you will be with Vinepaw, Borageheart with Lakepaw and I will be with Frost and Bear."Jaystar ordered.

Suddenly there was a growl from outside the den and three foxes came in. "Bunnyleap, Vinepaw attack the smaller one, Borageheart, Lakepaw attack the fox on the right, Frost and Bear come with me we are going to attack the lead fox."Jaustar ordered.

Borageheart and Lakepaw worked as a team dodging the foxes attacks but still attacking it, Bunnyleap's left front paw was bitten but she and Vinepaw kept on with the attack. Frost attacked the fox from the left, Bear attacked from the right and Jaystar attacked from the front, confusing the fox but somehow he got hold of Frost's tail and most likely broke the end, but Bear came in and scratched the foxes eyes making it release Frost's tail and they continued attacking until the fox bolted out of the den after the other two foxes.

Jaystar looked around and saw that her cats were alright with a few injuries. When she turned to check on Feather and saw that she had had three kit. One was a black and white she cat, the other was a grey she cat with a white lightning down her side and the last one was a white and gold spotted she cat.

"Feather what are you going to name them?"Jaystar asked. "The black and white she cat will be called Poppy, the grey she cat will be called Lightning because of the white lightning mark down her side and the last she cat with be called Star because of her gold and white spotted fur."Feather replied. "Feather, Bear, Frost and Honey, do you want to join our clan, where you will learn how to hunt and defend yourselves and others and everyone in the clan will protect all of you."asked Jaystar.

Feather, Bear, Frost and Honey gathered together for a discussion and when they separated, Honey replied to Jaystar. "Jaystar we would love to join your clan." "Then tomorrow we will leave and you will meet the rest of the clan."Jaystar replied.

Then the 9 cats and 3 kits went to sleep so they would have enough energy for their journey home.

The next morning

"Ok everyone, it's time to go, Icefur is everyone ok and ready to go?"Jaystar asked the medicine cat. "Yes, we are all ready to leave and return back home."replied Icefur. "Then let's go, Bunnyleap, Icefur help Feather carry her kits, Borageheart bring up the rear and keep an eye out for anything."Jaystar ordered.

When everyone was in position and ready to go the group of cats walked out of the den and headed across the moor and back into the forest. The cats then quickly hunted for something to eat and once they had eaten, they headed to their home.

At Jayclan Camp

"Attention cats of Jayclan gather here for a clan meeting." Jaystar announced as soon as they arrived back home. She then waited for everyone to gather before continuing. "We are back finally and today we are welcoming new cats to the clan."Jaystar announced.

"Feather, Honey, Bear and Frost is it your wish to join Jayclan and protect this clan and your clanmates with your life." Jaystar asked. "It is"They replied together.

"Then by the power of Starclan I will give you your warrior names, Feather from this moment onwards you will be called Feathernose, Honey from this moment onwards you will be called Honeyflight, Bear from this moment onwards you will be called Beartooth , Frost from this moment onwards you will be called Frosteyes, Poppy, Lightning and Star will now be known at Poppykit, Lightningkit and Starkit."Jaystar announced.

"Feathernose, Honeyflight, Beartooth, Frosteyes, Poppykit, Lightningkit, Starkit"The clan yelled. "That is all for now, Meadowfur come here please.Jaystar said. "Yes Jaystar what do you want?"Meadowfur asked. "Where's Bluefrost?and can you show the new cats their den please"Jaystar asks worriedly. "She's in the nursery, she had her kits this morning, you should go she her and I will show everyone to there dens."Meadowfur said.

So Jaystar headed over to the nursery she saw Bluefrost with four kits.

"Bluefrost what are the names of your kits?"asked Jaystar. "The grey blue tom is called Skykit, The blue she cat is called Oceankit, the orange and white spotted tom is called Swiftkit and the blue, grey and black spotted she cat is called Echokit."Bluefrost replied. "Bluefrost they are lovely names, I am going to stay here tonight as well."Jaystar said.

That Night 'Feathernose and her kits were asleep in their nest.'

Jaystar awoke with a large pain in her stomach and realized her kits were coming. "Icefur!"Jaystar yowled loudly and the medicine cat came running into the nursery. "Oh Jaystar your kits are coming, here bite on this stick and bite on it when the pain comes."

Two Hours Later

" Jaystar you are now the mother of three lovely kits, what are you going to name them?"Icefur asked. "Shiningkit for the pale yellow tom, Riverkit for the blue and grey she cat and Moonkit for the pure white she cat."Jaystar replied looking at her kits with Love.

"Jaystar they are lovely names, do you want me to announce it to the clan now or in the morning."asked Icefur. "i'd say wait till morning because some cats need some sleep."Jaystar replied. "Ok Jaystar, but for now you need to rest so you sleep now and I will wake you in the morning."Icefur replied as she backed out of the nursery. Jaystar then closed her eyes and went back to sleep.

The next day

"Cats of Jayclan I have great news" yelled Icefur and waited until everyone had gathered before continuing. "Last night Jaystar had her kits, two she cats and a tom, their names are Riverkit, Moonkit and Shiningkit, from now on until Jaystar's kits are old enough, Meadowfur will be in charge and Borageheart will be assisting him, that's all everyone."said Icefur.

"Jaystar, Borageheart, Riverkit, Moonkit, Shiningkit, Meadowfur!" The clan yowled.

Comment on who you want the kits mentors to be and what, Vinepaw, Treepaw, Lakepaw, Aspenpaw and Mythpaw's warrior names should be. Don't forget to put in the comments three cats you would like in this story and put their: Eye colour, Fur colour, Parents name, whether they are clanborn kittypet or loner, age, warrior name.

Chapter Seven

3 Moons Later

"I will beMoonstar leader of Moonclan"announced Moonkit. " "and I will be Lightningstar leader of Lightningclan" yelled Lightningkit. "My deputy is Swiftfoot"said Moonkit. "and my deputy will be Skyfall."said Lightningkit. Then Starkit, Oceankit, Riverkit and Poppykit came out and Poppykit yelled "Starflight, Oceanlife you get Moonstar and Swiftfoot, Riverflow your with me and we are going to attack Lightningstar and Skyfall." "Ok Poppystar"yelled the three kits as they jumped onto the other kits.

They kept on playing until Echokit and Shiningkit came out with Jaystar. "Ok kits settle down, go get something from the fresh kill pile and return to the nursery now." Jaystar ordered. So the kits all headed to the fresh kill pile and grabbed a piece of prey each and headed back to the nursery to eat.

Jaystar walked out of the nursery and headed to the Medicine den were Icefur and Aspenpaw were sorting herbs. "Hello Icefur, Aspenpaw, Icefur can you come for a walk with me in the forest please."asked Jaystar. "Sure Jaystar let's go."Icefur replied.

Icefur followed Jaystar out into the forest until they were away from the camp. "Icefur has Starclan sent you any signs yet."asked Jaystar. Icefur though before she answered "No Jaystar they haven't sent me any signs and I can't ask them much until we find a place like the Moonflower." "Ok thanks Icefur, that is all."Jaystar replied.

Later On That Day

"All cats old enough to catch their own prey, gather here for a clan meeting!"yelled Jaystar.

"Meadowfur is Vinepaw ready to become a warrior?"asked Jaystar.

"Yes Jaystar, he is ready to become a warrior"replied Meadowfur.

"Bluefrost is Mythpaw ready to become a warrior?"Jaystar asked.

"Yes she will be an excellent warrior"replied Bluefrost.

"Borageheart is Treepaw ready to become a warrior?"Jaystar asked her mate.

"Yes he has trained hard and is ready to become a warrior."He replied.

"Lakepaw is also ready to become a warrior."Jaystar announced.

"Vinepaw, Mythpaw, Treepaw and Lakepaw step forward... do you four promise to uphold the warrior code and protect your clan with your life?"asked Jaystar.

"Yes, I do"replied the four apprentices.

"Then I ask Starclan to look down on these four apprentices, they have trained hard and are ready to become warriors.""Mythpaw from this moment on you will be called Mythwing, Treepaw from this moment on you will be called Treetail, Vinepaw from this moment on you will be called Vinecloud and Lakepaw from this moment on you will be called Lakeshine."announced Jaystar.

"Mythwing, Treetail, Vinecloud, Lakeshine."yelled the clan.

"Tonight you four will guard the camp without speaking until dawn, everyone else return to your dens."announced Jaystar.

That Night

(Aspenpaw's POV)

Aspenpaw went and laid in her nest in the medicine den, she closed her eyes and when she opened them again she was in a tunnel that opened up to a cave with a river going through the middle. In the top of the roof their was a gap, suddenly the cave lit up as the moon shone down onto the river making it glow white and light up the cave.

"You have found the Moonriver, tell your leader and say that you, your mentor and your leader need to go their tomorrow night and that it is very important." Aspenpaw heard and when she turned around there was no one there.

The Next Day

(Icefur's POV)

"Icefur, can you come with me, I need to speak with you and Jaystar in her den."said Aspenpaw.

Icefur agreed and followed her apprentice outside, saw that the new warriors had joined the warrior den and continued towards Jaystar's den "Jaystar is it alright if we come in its very important?"asked Aspenpaw."yes come in"Jaystar replied.

Aspenpaw and her mentor Icefur walked into their leaders den."Jaystar and Icefur, I had a dream last night and I found where our moonflower is but it isn't a moonflower, it is the Moonriver and tonight Starclan wants us to go their."announced Aspenpaw.

"Well done Aspenpaw, tonight you will receive your full medicine cat name."said Icefur. "Ok you two go get ready and if you see Meadowfur can you send him in please."said Jaystar. "ok Jaystar as Aspenpaw and Icefur left her den.

A Couple Minutes Later

"Jaystar you wanted to see me?"asked Meadowfur as he popped his head inside Jaystar's den. "Oh yes Meadowfur, Icefur, Aspenpaw and myself have to leave the camp for a bit and I want you in charge please"announced Jaystar. "Ok Jaystar I will do it, when do you leave?"Meadowfur asked. "We leave as soon as Icefur and Aspenpaw are ready."Jaystar replied.

With that Jaystar signaled Meadowfur to leave. Once Meadowfur had left, Jaystar walked outside and headed over to the Medicine Den to wait for Icefur and Aspenpaw.

Once they came out the three cats headed out of camp and followed Aspenpaw to the entrance of tunnels. When they arrived, Aspenpaw said "I will go first to show you the way but it gets really dark in there so try and stick close."

So Aspenpaw went into the tunnels followed by his mentor Icefur and lastly Jaystar.

A Couple Minutes Later!!

Suddenly the tunnel widened and their was a slight glow coming from round the next bend. When they went around the bend they saw that the tunnel widened out and that their was a river running through the middle with stars reflecting into it.

They each layed down, took a sip of the river and closed their eyes awaiting their dreams.

(Jaystar's POV)

"Welcome Jaystar, to Starclan my name is Greyfang first medicine cat of Doveclan."said a grey tom with blue grey eyes. "Hi Greyfang, what do you want to tell me."asked Jaystar. "I am here to tell you a knew prophecy, The softest eagle will leave the clan making the quiet rain upset and heartbroken, the softest eagle will return and the light of Jay will need to decide, to allow the disurter to join or leave forever."ssid Greyfang.

"What does it mean Greyfang?"asked Jaystar. "That I can't tell you but you and your friends should visit your families back in Doveclan and Gorseclan.

(Aspenpaw's POV)

"Aspenpaw is it your wish to follow the mysteries of healing and become a medicine cat?asked Icefur. "Yes it is"replied Aspenpaw. "Then I ask Starclan to look down on this apprentice, she has trained hard in the way of healing and I commend her a full medicine cat, Aspenpaw from now on you will be called Aspenfrost."announced Icefur. Then Icefur walked away leaving Aspenpaw/frost alone to look around.

"Hello Aspenfrost."said a cat. When Aspenfrost turned around she saw a silver tom with turquoise eyes who looked familiar. "Brother is that you Fuzzypaw?"asked Aspenfrost. "Yes it's me but it's Fuzzytail now."said Fuzzytail proudly. "What happened, why are you in Starclan?"questioned Aspenfrost. "Our clan was attacked by a wolf and I saved out mother Moonshine from it and I killed it but just as it was dying it swiped it claws across my throat killing me instantly."replied Fuzzytail.

"Aspenfrost, you need to go and see mother as soon as possible, she is close to joining Starclan and she wants to see you before she does."said a worried Fuzzytail. "I will go Fuzzytail, now good bye I have to go now."said Aspenfrost as he woke up at the Moonriver just as Jaystar and Icefur were waking up.

The three cats headed back to camp in silence until they were just outside their camp. "Aspenpaw can you go get Mythwing, Treetail, Vinecloud, Lakeshine, Meadowfur, Bluefrost, Borageheart please and meet me in my den."asked Jaystar. "yes Jaystar but it's Aspenfrost now." said Aspenfrost as she walked into camp.

A Couple Minutes Later

Everyone was in Jaystar's den, a little confused about why they were there."Thanks everyone for coming, I asked for you all to come here because, I think it's time we went back to our old clans and say hello."said Jaystar. "I agree with Jaystar, I have to go visit my mother because my brother is dead and she is close to going to Starclan."said Aspenfrost.

"Let's all go then but who will we leave in charge and what about our kits?"asked Bluefrost. "I think we should take the whole clan with us and I think all the kits are ready to be apprenticed so we leave in two days, enough time to begin to train our kits."announced Jaystar and then she signaled everyone to go back to bed.

What do you think of that chapter, I would like a suggestion for some new warriors that are in either Gorseclan or Doveclan, possibly two cats per clan. thanks.

"Ok cats of Jayclan it's time to keep going we are almost at our destination."announced Jaystar.

The clan followed Jaystar down the other side of the mountain, through the twoleg place where they had first met Firewing and Bunnyleap.

"Ok everyone we are here and see the marsh over there, that is where we will be staying."said Jaystar. "Bunnyleap and Firewing can you take the clan their while, Bluefrost, Meadowfur, Icefur, Borageheart and I go say hello to the clans."ordered Jaystar. "Yes Jaystar."they replied.

Jaystar watched as Bunnyleap and Firewing led her clan over to the marshes. "Ok guys lets go say hello to our old clans now, we will start with Gorseclan and then Doveclan."said Jaystar. The group of cats then headed into a dense forest until they arrived at a Gorse tunnel.

"Meadowfur, you will lead the way."ordered Jaystar. Meadowfur walked into the Gorse tunnel followed by Jaystar, Icefur, Bluefrost and Borageheart. When they got out of the Gorse tunnel a cat yowled "Intruders". Sudddenly the group was surrounded by a lot of cat. "Wait, my name is Jaystar and I would like to speak to Stonestar please."yelled Jaystar. "Stonestar is dead, I am now leader of Gorseclan "said a bright red and white spotted tom with yellow eyes. "Is that youu Flamingstar?"asked Meadowfur. "Yes it is me, Meadowfur and hello, Bluefrost and Icefur what brings you back to our camp?"asked a curious looking Flamingstar.

"We are here to check on our old clans and say hello before we go back to our territory."said Borageheart. "Ok but where is Apenpaw, Mythpaw and Vinepaw?"asked Flamingstar. "They are with the rest of the clan at the Marshes and they are now known as Aspenfrost, Mythwing and Vinecloud."said Bluefrost.

"Is our mother still here Flamingstar?"asked Icefur. "yes she is but she is in the elders den now, you can go see her if you want to."said Flamingstar. Chapter Nine Jaystar followed by Meadowfur, Borageheart, Icefur and Bluefrost entered into another forest but this forest was not as dense as in Gorselcan's territory. Once they finally found the Doveclan camo entrance, they all walked through the entrance one by one following Jaystar.

"Jaystar is that you?"asked a sand coloured she cat. "Yes it is Sandwave, where is Flowerstar?"asked Jaystar. "Flowerstar is with Starclan now, Dovestar is now our leader."replied a honey and pink spotted she cat. "Where is Dovestar, i need to speak to him immediately but first how are you Sandwave?"asked Jaystar.
